

Identification of sputter bearings

The sputter bearing has a different upper & lower half, to be used on each big end journal. They are made from different materials & are different thickness.

The upper bearing has the written word 'SPUTTER' on the back of the bearing & is also a dull grey finish.

The lower bearing, which is the thinner of the two bearings & has shinier surface finish, normally a brushed aluminium look.

